

August 21, 2012

AFRH Chief Operating Officer Fact Sheet 9A

Subject: AFRH Hotline Program

Armed Forces Retirement Home (AFRH) Washington and AFRH Gulfport Residents, Resident family members and employees should report allegations of waste, fraud, abuse and mismanagement or the perception thereof to the AFRH Inspector General (IG) on the following toll-free number: 1-866-769-2068. The AFRH Hotline is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Hotline callers will be able to leave taped messages regarding allegations of inappropriate behavior.

Allegations can also be forwarded via e-mail to AFRH.IG@afrh.gov, or sent via regular mail to: AFRH Inspector General, Attn: Ms. Sheila Abarr, 3700 North Capitol Street, Box 1303, Washington, DC 20011-8400. All allegations, including those made anonymously, will be investigated by the AFRH Inspector General or his/her designee.

The AFRH Hotline phone number and e-mail should only be used to report incidents of waste, fraud, abuse and mismanagement or the perception thereof.

STEVEN G. MCMANUS

AFRH Chief Operating Officer

Distribution:

AFRH RAC Chairs (for posting on bulletin boards)

All AFRH Residents (hard copy)

All AFRH Employees (electronic)